Thank you everyone for making this a wonderful week at camp.

The closing ceremonies will be a treat for the senses— Special guests from the Show Stoppers Performing Troupe in the Lower Mainland Area will feature; Tiffany Rivera and Erik Ioannidis; Both Erik and Tiffany have appeared as soloists throughout the Vancouver area at concerts, corporate events and charitable fundraisers for Variety and BC Children's Hospital. Tiffany was chosen as the PNE's best vocalist at the Star Discovery and Erik won in the soloist category at Richmond Idol. Erik performed at the Ozone during the 2010 Olympics and was Joseph in "Joseph & The Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat production at Stanley Park's Malkin bowl.

Also performing is Jon Samson who you have all had the opportunity to meet this week. He has run programs alongside the founders of the Blue Man group. He has performed at South Street Seaport, Galapagos Artspace, Brooklyn Library, Brooklyn Children's museum, The Bell House, and more. He is an award winning musician and currently has two CD's available. We look forward to hearing the song he has written for us while he has been here at camp.

Twinkling from the troops...

- ⊕ Aquila 3—1st Summit Guides— The Best of Camp! Going to the wildlife park & seeing the bears being fed. Getting 100 people to sign my shirt, making balloon animals for kids, Scoopz, pampering, the pool & shower, making traders and making stuff.
- ⊕ A member of the core staff overheard a Brownie at lunch say, "they're not going to try and starve us are they?"
- ⊕ What do you get when you mix creativity, bold colours, time to paint & mother nature? Brownies having a fabulous time on a windy day with their handmade & decorated kites. You can't wipe the smiles from their faces nor the squeals from their voices as they all ran after their kites being blown high by gust of wind. It can be honestly said:
